Item to be sponsored (please consult in advance if you have a specific item in mind to make sure that it is available):

I understand that sponsorship lasts for ten years from the date of acceptance and that although the Trustees hope to have the major exhibits on permanent display it may not always be possible. Exceptionally, if a sponsored item is permanently removed from display I will be informed and arrangements made for the sponsorship to be transferred to another item. I undertake to notify the trustees at their registered office of any change of my name or contact address
